Why donate to The Blues Society of Omaha?

The Blues Society of Omaha, Inc is a 501C3 Non-Profit Organization that was formed in 1998. We are an all-volunteer organization with over 600 members. BSO's mission is to "Keep the Blues Alive". We are recognized as one of the top Blues Societies in the country – a very cool thing for our great city. Through your support we continue to contribute to The Blues, its musicians and events in the area through our sponsorship and volunteer support:

- BSO is a sponsor of Playing With Fire, a series of concerts held each summer on Omaha's riverfront. We support the event financially as well as provide 500+ volunteer hours for each of the events. The PWF concert series has drawn national recognition to Omaha!
- In 2001, BSO created BluesEd, a non-profit youth artist development program which provides opportunities for young musicians to perform with other students in a band format. BluesEd has also gained national attention for Omaha.
- Regularly produces charitable events for musicians in need
- Provides support to The Zoo Bar – Lincoln's award-winning Blues venue
- "Jammin Away The Blues" – annual fundraiser for The Nebraska Mental Health Organization
- Operation Feed the Troops – fundraiser to provide free food to deploying and returning armed forces members and their families
- Annual toy drive for the children of Pine Ridge Reservation

BSO REVERES OUR VOLUNTEERS

As a non-profit organization, all of our BSO activities are accomplished by a host of willing volunteers. You see the names of some volunteers in the pages of every newsletter, and if you already are a volunteer you get email requests from our esteemed Volunteer Coordinator, Vanessa Bauer, to know just who is staffing the hundreds of volunteer positions needed for our community events. Most of these volunteer members continue to respond by stepping up each and every time Vanessa broadcasts a need for workers. If you're not already part of the rewards, fun, and friendship while volunteering, please consider what you can do to lend a hand to support BSO. You can enlist in the effort by subscribing to the volunteer email list at <http://omahablues.com/index.php?page=volunteers>.

Besides the names you do see, there are other volunteers whose names you don't see because they work quietly and diligently behind the scenes every month doing jobs integral to our business. Here are a few you should recognize and sincerely thank:

Dennis and Judy Elledge

This dedicated couple mails out our monthly Blues Notes newsletter, and they have done this job for about the past 10 years! Dennis and Judy race to pick up the newsletters when they are hot off the press, they attach mailing labels and sort the piles by zip codes, and then deal with the post office so that newsletters are in our hands at the beginning of each month. Judy and Dennis just keep on doing it and we are so lucky for their ongoing commitment to the cause.

Dave Dotson

"Sneaky Dave" serves as webmaster for omahablues.com and he is our Facebook page administrator, too. Dave also maintains the website subscription lists for distribution of President Terry O'Halloran's weekly e-blasts and for distribution of the volunteer emails. Dave handles all coordination with Paypal to process online donations and I'm certain he does lots more that I don't know or understand; but I do know that Dave is a computer guru, who patiently troubleshoots whenever the rest of us don't understand computer issues. Dave has been our faithful computer lackey for about 10 years.

Dawn Klich

If you are a Green member, you recently have seen Dawn's sunny greetings when she emails your monthly newsletter. Dawn also maintains the Green email distribution list. She stepped up to the plate on this task in September of 2010, allowing Green members to receive their newsletter by email rather than seeking it on the BSO website. Dawn was new to Omaha when she found BSO and immediately offered her skills as a volunteer to do this job ... and the many other jobs Dawn does at events.

Glenn Bauer, John Czuba, Mary Elofson, Matt Gagne, Nino Greco, Mark Grubbs, Moe Jasinski, Jeff Malloy, Terry O'Halloran and Michelle Olmstead

This new team is distributing newsletters and BSO publicity material to various venues in the Omaha, Lincoln, and Council Bluffs areas. They do this every month to increase community awareness and attract new members. I learned of the team efforts when I stopped at Wine Styles on 74th & Pacific and was surprised to see a stack of our newsletters and a BSO poster there—later learned to have been courtesy of conscientious Jeff Malloy, who hatched the plan for a monthly distribution tree and suggested it to others. Jeff covers a midtown route of distribution. Later, I was at Dundee Cork and Bottle (yep, there's a theme to my travels) when always-beaming Mary Elofson came in to leave newsletters there as she was walking on her distribution route through Dundee. All of the members of the distribution team also have volunteered for many other jobs over the course of many years, and now they are taking on new monthly responsibilities for sake of us all.

Again, we always need more volunteers. If you can help out occasionally ... if you can work routinely behind the scenes ... or if you have special skills or talents that you can offer ... please sign up today at <http://omahablues.com/index.php?page=volunteers>. Please thank ALL of our volunteers, some doing time-consuming tasks we others just take for granted without thinking about the need to get them done. Also, please thank venues displaying BSO material and thank businesses advertising in this newsletter.

What's New with BluesEd?

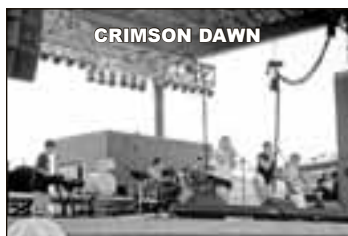

AKSARBEN VILLAGE BLUESFEST A SMASHING SUCCESS!

On June 25, 2011, two of our BluesEd bands (Us and Them and Mojo Bag) performed on the stage at Stinson Park for the first annual Aksarben Village Bluesfest. Free to the public, blues fans enjoyed an evening full of great performances by Lou DeLuca and The R&M Blues Band, Blue House, The Rent to Own Horns, and finally by Big James & The Chicago Playboys. Thank you to Patti Fries for organizing our very successful fundraising effort, the Blues Society for providing us with the performing and fundraising opportunities, and to our students and families who volunteered by stocking, selling, and icing down drinks!

PLAYING WITH FIRE CONCERT ROCKS STINSON PARK!

Come you-know-what or high water, the annual Playing With Fire concert (moved from the riverfront to Stinson Park) once again provided another memorable night of blues music for all its fans! BluesEd band Crimson Dawn opened the concert followed by the Brad Cordle Band, the Malford Miligan Band, and Sharon Jones & the Dap Kings. A good time was had by all! Once again, BluesEd would like to thank all of our parent volunteers who helped sell soda and water to all the thirsty blues fans!

RED SKY MUSIC FESTIVAL

Blues Ed band, Mojo Bag, triumphed during the local battle of the bands auditions and was selected by concert promoters to play the opening day at the inaugural Red Sky Music Festival. The band opened the show on Stage B at TD

Ameritrade Park and had a great time with Chris Saub and Rhythm Collective at the event.

BLUESED WORKSHOPS

BluesEd students attended three workshops in July where our clinicians continued to work with the students on technique, music interpretation and stage presence. On July 31st, BluesEd students were moved into different groups and performed in front of a panel of judges where they received valuable feedback and encouragement.

FUTURE BLUESSED PERFORMANCES: SAVE THE DATES!

PLAYING WITH FIRE

Despite a meteoric heat index this years Playing With Fire was deemed an overwhelming success to everyone I spoke with during the evening... Forced to move from the Lewis and Clark Landing which has been turned into a wading pool thanks to historic water levels on the Missouri River, the festival landed at Stinson Park on 67th and Center.

Stinson Park is a grass surface for the crowd and is a natural amphitheatre with a raised stage for the performers to strut their stuff. While some people missed the river setting I found it a nice change of pace for this event.

The line up for this years show was stellar; The Brad Cordle Band from Omaha opened the show and were as usual on top of their game... I do not think they have been together a year yet, but get tighter and tighter each time I see them. Malford Malligan has played PWF before and proved to be well worth his repeat trip with his soulful vocals and a great backing band. BluesEd band Crimson Dawn also performed.

Sharon Jones and the Dap Kings closed the show with one of the most anticipated shows in Omaha this year... Sharon is backed by an 8 piece band, 3 horns 3 guitars, 2 percussion players PLUS 2 background singers. Sharon Jones is a little dynamo, referred to a Female version of James Brown with all the moves and a set of cast iron pipes to go with them. SJ and the Dap Kings really had the crowd rockin, Sharon dragged one lucky guy out of the front row and jammed with him on stage for a song, and joined former Blues Ed Trumpet player Blake in a shortened but spirited rendition of When the Saints Come Marching In to end the show.

This was PWF's 8th season of summer music courtesy of Jeff Davis who has backed this effort with his heart and soul, not to mention some of his retirement account... These summer event could not have been near the success they have been without the Blues Society of Omaha and the other hundreds of volunteers staffing the various jobs and positions it takes to pull an event like this off as well as it has been each and every year.

I know Jeff Davis will be looking out of the corner of his eye hoping to land another corporate sponsor to help carry the financial load and pull off another year or two... but if not, thank you Jeff Davis for your vision and commitment in providing us with some of the best shows in the land for the last eight years.

PLAYING WITH FIRE

Thank you helping to make the 2011 Playing with Fire Concert a success! We promised an evening of blues, soul, funk, gospel, Motown, and a whole lot of fun. Judging from the crowd enthusiasm Playing with Fire delivered the hottest show of the summer... and in more ways than one.

Discussions have already begun on a 2012 Playing with Fire Concert Series. What comes of these plans will depend heavily on a further increase in support and sponsorship. Always remember that Playing with Fire is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization and so your contributions can be tax deductible.

Playing with Fire is eligible for a $10,000 grant but we must raise matching funds of $11,500 by September 10! This grant will help offset the additional costs incurred from the move off of the Lewis & Clark Landing.

Every dollar counts, so please visit our website, www.playingwithfireomaha.net, and follow the link to 'Friends of PwF' page to see how you can become a friend of Playing with Fire and make a difference in our future.

Thank you so much,

-The Playing with Fire Organizational Team

Andrew Jr. Boy Jones

*The 21st Saloon
Thursday, August 11th*

From postwar Texas to California in the '80s, Andrew Jr. Boy Jones is a prolific, veteran guitar prodigy who has spent 45 musical years playing alongside some of the greatest names in electric blues including Freddie King, Bobby Patterson, Cornell Dupree, Johnny Taylor and Katie Webster. Since releasing his very first album, , in the late '90s, he's been fronting the group that bears his name.

Matt Schofield at Union Pizzeria 7/21/2011

Just when I thought I would enjoy a nice air conditioned show, HELL NO! Power was off at the Union Pizzeria for most of the day, no air conditioning, no Keno... somehow it was ever warmer inside than it was outside at the Red Sky event.

The pizza house was packed by Blues Society members as well as shelter seekers from the Red Sky shows in move masterminded by Terry O to not compete with Red Sky at the 21st but to move closer to big names at Red Sky and put the Schofield show on for free right across the street!

Matt Schofield was visiting Omaha for the 2nd time in less than a year, it's clear to see how he was voted one of Great Britain 's to 10 guitar players of all time.

On August 7th we are also doing a big benefit for the Tim Hasenplug- (not sure of exact spelling) family. I believe so far there are 3 bands or members of some of the bands he had played with that are going to play that day.

They are: The Pounders, Fast Break, Bone and the Boilers. We are planning on having a silent auction from donated items etc.

I will let you know more as it becomes available.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact me at the number below.

I also sent a this to Michelle Olmstead, she had advised me that she was out of town, but I didn't know for how long.

Also, this coming Thursday the 28th, Little Joe and Big Trouble from 9-12.

Thank you,

Steve F.

Ric,

Finally found a minute to send a big thank you for sending my bass strap after having left it in Omaha. This strap is a special one as it goes over both shoulders and helps on nights when the bass feels so heavy.

We had a great time playing at the New Lift Lounge and the blues society people in Omaha are some of the nicest people. Keep up the good work and I hope to see you soon.

Brad Cordle Band Kicks off 38th Anniversary Zoo Fest

As a card carrying fat man, I'm gonna lobby all outside music events be reserved for the entire month on October... Between my nephew's final Legion Baseball season, and all the swell music events mid June thru late July something has got to give, once again being in peak physical condition has paid its dividends getting me though one more summer.

Brad Cordle Band, which also includes Dave Steen, Craig Balderson, Drew Brookings, and Johnny Ray Gomez Jr, kicked off the 38th anniversary Zoo Fest with a bang. The weekend had a great mix of both local and National talent with varied styling's also included The Stone River Boys, The Derailers, Dave Alvin, Kelley Hunt, Brave Combo, and straight from the "Armada Room" the ultimate lounge act, The Self-Righteous Brothers!

Please note the Cordle show really got good when Brad became "one with the stage" by kicking off his shoes!

Hello Blues Fans -

On Thursday, August 11th English bluesrocker Russ Tippins will perform live at Gator O'Malley's in Omaha, Nebraska (121st & Center Sts).

Tippins hails from noted music market, Newcastle Upon Tyne, England - and is in America playing festivals this summer.

- Tippins was 'Classic Rock Magazine's "Band of the Month" for December 2010.

- His band also recently appeared on BBC radio - a nationwide broadcast.

I chanced across Tippins while listening to English radio online.

Tippins' mix of Robert Plant (Led Zeppelin) vocals over Humble Pie arena blues-rock styling struck a chord for me.

- His music can be heard on Pacific St Blues & Americana

on KIWR fm or archived at www.KIWRBlues.podomatic.com

Tippins is one of two bands from Northeast England playing Omaha this summer.

I'd like to see an opportunity for an Omaha act to play the United Kingdom develop out of these gigs.

We do this by creating opportunity and an audience for English bands here.

Please join me on Thursday, August 11st at Gator O'Malley's.

Thanks for listening to the radio program, Pacific St Blues & Americana - Rick Galusha, Host.

MARC BROUSSARD

Saturday, August 6th • Slowdown

Marc Broussard (born January 14, 1982) is an American singer/songwriter. His style is best described as "Bayou Soul," a mix of funk, blues, R&B, rock, and pop, matched with distinct Southern roots.

Marc Broussard was seemingly destined for a life as a music man. As the son of Boogie Kings guitarist (and Louisiana Hall of Fame member) Ted Broussard, his upbringing in Lafayette, La., instilled in him an affinity for R&B alongside the Cajun trappings of southern Louisiana. He draws vocal and stylistic influence from Otis Redding and Brian McKnight while bearing the preternaturally gruff voice of John Hiatt or Dr. John.

CD Reviews

Ivan Appelrouth • Blue & Instrumental

Editors Note: Got two reviews on Ivan Appelrouth this month, enjoy!

I know, you already said WHO? This is a release from a very small label, Eller Soul Records but worth a listen if you dig jump blues. Appelrouth had written eight of the fifteen songs on this cd with the intent of getting into TV & film soundtracks, enough people heard them and encouraged him to finish the cd. Cut live in the studio, the old school way with that big band feel. No surprise since the backing band has a dog house bass, piano & horn section at all times. Appelrouth lays down some tasty guitar here too. You can tell his influences, T-Bone Walker, Albert King, Albert Collins, and Magic Sam. Eight original songs here, six covers by T-Bone Walker, Albert Collins, Junior Walker, you get the idea. If you like Room full of Blues, Mannish Boys, Nighthawks, Ronnie Earl this will be right up your alley. Just remember this is strictly instrumental, easy to listen to & upbeat for all but one track - Stranger on the Shore. One out of fifteen is pretty good. You are not likely to find this at Homer's or even Amazon. The label's website is www.ellersoulrecords.com.

Ivan Appelrouth has released his first CD on the EllerSoul record label entitled Blue and Instrumental. For those of you who have not heard of Ivan Appelrouth he has been around for about 30 years. The early '80's found Ivan playing with several bands in the New England area including Ivan Appelrouth's teacher and mentor Duke Robillard. The '90's Ivan Appelrouth was playing and touring with Li'l Ronnie & the Grand Dukes and played with such luminaries as Earl King, James 'Thunderbird' Davis, Nappy Brown and many others.

The CD Blue and Instrumental really showcases this renowned guitarist's collection of original blues, swing & jump instrumentals. There are 15 tracks on the CD Blue and Instrumental by Ivan Appelrouth. All 15 tracks are good and it's not often that I like every song on a CD, this is Blues, swing & jump instrumentals at its best. So check out the CD Blue and Instrumental by Ivan Appelrouth on the EllerSoul record label and add this to your music collection.

North Mississippi Hill Country Picnic • Various artists Volume 2

Every year since 2006 various hill country musicians have gathered at Potts Camp, MI for a stomping good time in the tradition of R.L. Burnside, Othar Turner and Junior Kimbrough. I can almost smell the barbeque goat and Moonshine from here! The record starts out with the Reverend John Wilkins doing that ole Fred McDowell song "You Got To Move" and you will too as this whole record starts to unfold, Robert Belfour, Alvin Youngblood Hart strut their stuff and you will not be able to keep your foot still. This is a very good record! If you are not familiar with the drone and repetitive sounds of the hill country blues, I advise that you listen a little deeper, there is more going on than you think. Jimbo Mathus, North Mississippi All stars and the hill country revue are also along for the ride! T-Model Ford does a glorious messy version of "Im Going Down" but Dwayne Burnside is just a mess as he tries his dad's song "Snake Drive" some highs and lows on the record but my advise is that you sip a little good bourbon while you listen to it loudly! Kenny Brown does a great version of a song I have heard too much of called "Shake Your Money-maker" it is flat out rocking, if it does not make you move, I will personally come to your house and remove the stick from your butt! So I can highly recommend this record, the trouble is you probably wont find it in stores. HELLO AMAZON! As I write this my beloved Borders is in the process of closing and I am fighting thru tears getting this written. I was buying the new Gillian Welch record the other day and I broke down and cried at the checkout counter. I am rambling now, so go buy some blues where you can. Remember Pop music is evil!

CD Reviews

Cindy Bullens • Howling Trains and Barking Dogs

In the end there are only two kinds of music; good music and bad music. Cindy Bullens' new album, 'Howling Trains and Barking Dogs' is good music. Admittedly it is not a blues album; however, it is roots music and the audience's crossover. While assigning labels can be off-setting, most listeners would slot New England singer-songwriter Cindy Bullens as an Americana artist. Her new album, 'Howling Trains and Barking Dogs' is packed with radio friendly songs including a duet with friend and collaborator Radney Foster on, 'Labor of Love.'

Bullens career stretches back to singing in Elton John's band. Her two Grammy nominations came early in her recording career including a nod as one of three singers for the soundtrack, 'Grease.' Throughout her career Bullens has attracted high caliber partnerships including work with; Bonnie Raitt, Delbert McClinton, John Hiatt, Lucinda Williams and Rodney Crowell. Her songs have been recorded by numerous acts including; The Dixie Chicks, Irma Thomas and Sarah Brown.

Guests on Bullens new album include Al Anderson(NRBQ), Radney Foster and Wendy Waldman. Noted songwriter Bill Lloyd (whose new reunion album with Radney Foster is also excellent) co-wrote the track, 'In a Perfect World.'

Whereas many albums have a few good songs, Howling Trains unfolds with strong melodies, tactful playing which serves the song and meaningful lyrics. For blues programmers the track, 'I Didn't Know,' with the strong piano playing of Bob Colwell should fit most shows. The ballad, 'Everywhere and Nowhere' with its strong Rosanne Cash sound, is heartfelt and makes a nice tonal color break. It is hard to imagine that any listener with, "wide-tastes" would not thoroughly enjoy this release.

The Mighty Mojo Prophets

Rip Cat Records

Long Beach, California's Rip Cat Records has put out several interesting cd's that I've come across lately. Rip Cat artists The Mighty Mojo Prophets play West Coast Blues. Their sound is reminiscent of a favorite of mine, James Harmon, and Harmon alumni Junior Watson even plays on one cut. Singer Tom "Big Son" Eliff sounds a great like Harmon on several cuts.

The core group has Eliff on vocals, Mitch "Da Switch" Dow on guitar, Alex "Lil A" on harp, Scott Lambert on bass, and Johnny Minguez on drums. The Prophets play what they describe as "jazzy swingin' and jumpin' West Coast Blues", which seems to be an apt way to describe their music.

This is an outstanding cd. Listeners that are into West Coast Jump, harmonica driven blues, or James Harmon should find it interesting. I will be looking forward to see what Rip Cat Records have in store for the future.
