This past October, we spent some time at Ardent Studios, down in Memphis. We recorded a new project with Grammy award winning producer Chris Goldsmith. We're very excited for you to hear the finished product! The new record, 100 Years of Robert Johnson, celebrates the 100th anniversary of Robert Johnson's birth and will be released February 1st on Ryko Records/Big Records. To accompany the new record, we have booked some special shows for early next year. We are calling our new alter ego the Big Head Blues Club (BHBC)

- Regularly produces charitable events for musicians in need
- Provides support to The Zoo Bar – Lincoln's award-winning Blues venue

What's New with BluesEd

Our New Web Site

We are happy to announce that our new, user-friendly BluesEd web site (www.bluesed.com) is up and running! Packed with lots of current information, audition forms, and a link to sign up to become our friend on Facebook, the site should be a wonderful resource for parents, students, sponsors, and anyone interested in hiring one of our bands to play at an event. Greg Eckstrom, the lead parent for the band Running With Scissors spent many hours updating the site and we want to take this opportunity to say a BIG THANK YOU to him for volunteering all his time and experience to this project.

2011 Auditions for New Students

We welcome new students with open arms! Auditions for the 2011 summer season will be held Sunday, January 30, 2011, at PS Collective at 6056 Maple Street in Omaha. For more information and to sign up, please go to the BluesEd web site at www.bluesed.com and click on the 2011 Audition link at the top of the home page. The cost is $10.00 to audition. If you know a budding musician whose dream is to play on a stage with others who share the same dream, be sure to pass on the audition information.

Registration Forms for New and Returning Students

Registration forms for both new and returning students are available at www.bluesed.com. Returning students need to submit a registration form but do not need to audition. There are three ways to submit the form: 1) fill out the online form, 2) save the PDF file to your computer, fill it out electronically, and email to torrez@bluesed.com, or 3) print out the PDF file, fill it out, and mail to Missy Torrez, 2408 Leigh Lane, Papillion, NE 68133. The forms must be filled out and returned by January 17, 2011. If you have any questions, please contact one of our directors at torrez@bluesed.com or fries@bluesed.com.

Sponsorships Available

BluesEd would like to thank all who have sponsored our wonderful program in the past. We are always looking for new sponsors interesting in supporting our one-of-a-kind youth artist development program. For more information, please contact one of our directors at directors@bluesed.com.

Whenever possible, our BluesEd bands are continuing to rehearse throughout the winter months. All our students are looking forward to another great summer on the stage where they will not only "wow" the audience with their talent, but also inspire others with the encouragement, mentorship, and friendship the students openly show each other as they develop as musicians.

Thank you again to our Blues Society friends for all your support!

—— O.B.S. MAILBAG ——

From Son of 76 and the Watchmen:

It has been a great year for us- or at least I think it has: recorded and released our third studio album to good reviews, were nominated again for Best Soul at the OEAs and played a myriad of shows on big and small stages----somehow managing to connect with people in this crazy, fast-paced world. I think all musicians at some point may ask themselves why they should continue to create and share---the late hours, the amount of money you spend on equipment and recording, the dive bars and miles on the road- sometimes take a toll on your love of playing music. Thankfully, I have been reminded this year by a few listeners just why this endeavor is so valuable---sometimes you touch people's hearts---sometimes that lyric hits the ear of someone that is hurting and gives them solace---sometimes that show makes the difference in a horrible day or week. Sometimes you can make another person's life richer by expressing yourself---even if it only happens to 1 in a 1,000, I know it is worth it. This life is about making connections and I feel so blessed when someone shares how "Son of 76" music has touched their life. It makes us want to keep getting in that car and driving to the next gig. Thanks to all of you for your support and love of music! We couldn't do it without you.

*Hope to see you out and about! CHEERS!

A WORLD-CLASS STUDIO RELEASE AND TOUR TO CELEBRATE JOHNSON'S LEGENDARY BLUES LEGACY

100 YEARS OF ROBERT JOHNSON

THE NEW STUDIO RECORDING BY BIG HEAD BLUES CLUB FEATURING BIG HEAD TODD AND THE MONSTERS AND SPECIAL GUESTS
B.B. KING, HUBERT SUMLIN, DAVID "HONEYBOY" EDWARDS, CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE, RUTHIE FOSTER, CEDRIC BURNSIDE AND LIGHTNIN' MALCOLM

ALBUM RELEASE, FEBRUARY 1, 2011, TO BE SUPPORTED BY NATIONAL TOUR:
"BLUES AT THE CROSSROADS: THE ROBERT JOHNSON CENTENNIAL CONCERTS"

March 5th in Omaha – The Holland Performing Arts Center

How do you throw a 100th birthday bash for the most influential bluesman that ever lived? If you're Big Head Todd and The Monsters, you gather some of the greatest living blues musicians and record 100 Years of Robert Johnson (February 1, 2011 – Ryko/Big Records), a stirring new tribute album featuring 10 potent interpretations of some of the most vital and durable music of the past century.

Big Head Blues Club, as the ad hoc ensemble is calling itself, features, in addition to the Colorado-based quartet—guitarist and vocalist Todd Park Mohr, bassist Rob Squires, drummer Brian Nevins and keyboardist Jeremy Lawton—special guests, blues legends B.B. King, Hubert Sumlin, Honeyboy Edwards and Charlie Musselwhite, as well as keepers of the blues flame Ruthie Foster, Cedric Burnside and Lightnin' Malcolm.

Recorded at the legendary Ardent Studios in Memphis, and produced by Grammy award winning blues producer Chris Goldsmith (Blind Boys of Alabama), 100 Years of Robert Johnson will be released in early 2011, and supported by a national tour ("Blues at the Crossroads: The Robert Johnson Centennial Concerts") featuring many of the participants in the sessions. A complete list of the tour dates is included below.

For Todd Park Mohr, who founded Big Head Todd and The Monsters with Squires and Nevins nearly a quarter-century ago, the project has served to re-introduce him to the iconic music of Johnson, whose songs provided many of the pioneering blues-rock bands—Led Zeppelin, the Rolling Stones, The Grateful Dead, Cream, Canned Heat, etc.—with some of their most popular material.

100 Years of Robert Johnson features several inspired takes on Johnson's best known compositions. For Mohr and Goldsmith, the challenge in recording the tribute was to give new voice to Johnson's music, to avoid copying the countless cover versions already extant. "In so many of the takes on Robert's stuff, you don't get the depth of emotion that's in the lyrics and in Robert's voice. That's one thing that Chris and the band and my voice were able to bring to it. Chris had great ideas about how to represent the stuff, and all the musicians were just so good at what they did, the unique arrangements just came naturally."

Robert Johnson's story is the stuff of myth and legend alike, and his music has fascinated blues fans and musicians for more than seven decades. Born in Mississippi in 1911, Johnson recorded only 29 songs, all during the years 1936 and '37. His unique guitar style and haunting vocal phrasing, and the evocative, often mysterious nature of his lyrics, made him a popular artist during his short time in the spotlight and has continued to intrigue since. A persistent tale that, as a young man, Johnson sold his soul to the Devil in order to become a more proficient musician has been attached to his biography since his untimely death at age 27—the alleged victim of a poisoning incident at the hands of the jealous husband of a woman with whom Johnson had been flirting.

A hundred years after the birth of its greatest artist, it looks like the blues itself is about to be reborn.

100 Years of Robert Johnson Track List:

1. Come On In My Kitchen (w. Charlie Musselwhite)
2. Ramblin' On My Mind
3. When You Got A Good Friend (w. Hubert Sumlin on guitar and Ruthie Foster)
4. Cross Road Blues (w. B.B. King)
5. Preachin' Blues
6. Kind Hearted Woman (w. Ruthie Foster)
7. If I Had Possession Over Judgement Day
8. Last Fair Deal Gone Done (w. Charlie Musselwhite)
9. All My Love Is Love In Vain (Todd solo vocal and acoustic guitar)
10. Sweet Home Chicago (just Honeyboy and Musselwhite)

Cedric Burnside plays drums on "If I Had Possession Over Judgement Day" and "Preachin Blues," and acoustic guitar on "Ramblin On My Mind"

Lightnin' Malcolm plays electric guitar on "Ramblin on my Mind," "Gotta Good Friend," and "If I Had Possession Over Judgement Day" and plays acoustic guitar on "Preachin Blues" and "Kind Hearted Woman"

Seventh Annual Lash Larue Toy Drive

It was a packed house Sunday afternoon at the Lift for the seventh annual Lash LaRue Toy Drive for the children of the Pine Ridge Reservation. A pot luck dinner was provided with earnings going to the kids was manned by BSO volunteers with all sorts of taste treats and a reminder that Chili and Deviled Eggs are never a smart choice for me but it's just too damned tempting to ignore.

When I assume room temperature I wanna go where guys like Terry O Halloran go... Man this guy never quits giving back to his community and friends with worthy causes, today Terry O once again donated the bar proceeds for this event to the Kids of the Pine Ridge. Terry O will never toot his own horn, but by God I will, and while I'm at it, a hearty thanks to Terry O for what he has meant to the live music scene for all of us in the Omaha/Lincoln area... His replacement to us has yet to be molded.

Ya just knew Coco was gonna deliver, I have never seem him NOT put on a good show, today he had his pal and collaborator from Lincoln Dave Steen was playing with him, and his drummer might have the most hyper-active back beat I have ever listened to.

Today however I gotta vote for Brad Cordle's latest band mix for stealing the show... The man's got pipes! And the band that surrounds him is as solid as it gets, killer keyboards! My exposure has been very limited to hearing Brad and these guys, but that's gonna change starting again Thursday Dec 30th at the Zoo Bar for the early show in what I hope is the beginning beautiful relationship with Lincoln and the Zoo Bar.

A personal note hear to wish all of you a Happy Holiday season and whadaya say we dog pile the Lift for New Years Eve to hear Devon Allman and Honeytribe and show Terry O why we love him.

Live and local... If ya like it, ya better live it, or ya just might lose it!

CD Reviews

Rob Stone Back Around Here

Singer/harp player Rob Stone has released a cd of classic Chicago blues, that has a touch of r&b added for good measure. It has been seven years since his last release, and I hope that it doesn't take nearly that long for a follow-up to Back Around Here.

Guitarist Chris James and bassist Patrick Rynn are the core group. They have played with Stone for years, and it is apparent. They make for a very tight unit and do an outstanding job throughout. Notable back-up work is contributed by Willie "Big Eyes" Smith on drums and David Maxwell on piano among others. Sax player Rodney Brown is stellar on a couple of jumping numbers.

Stone shows his prowess playing harp on the instrumental Dragon Killers. This is evidence that he is one of the best young traditional blues harmonica players around today.

This is an exceptional cd from start to finish. If you enjoy post-war Chicago blues, this is a must have.

Troy Turner Whole Lotta Blues

Troy Turner has released a self-produced CD entitled Whole Lotta Blues on the Evidence record label. When I first played this cd Whole Lotta Blues I did not like it, however after listening to it a few times I started to like it.

The CD Whole Lotta Blues has 14 tracks. 12 tracks are written by Hubert Sumlin (guitarist for Howlin Wolf) and Jon Tiven. Troy Turner co-wrote the other two tracks with Jon Tiven.

When Troy Turner plays he includes a little bit of soul, funk, and rock elements in his music but can also play some straight forward blues. There are four tracks that really stand out to me. The first one is the title track Whole Lotta Blues, Come to your Senses, Goin Fishin', and Don't Push your Luck. These last two tracks show Troy Turner song writing ability. So if you are looking for some new music to listen to then check out the CD Whole Lotta Blues by Troy Turner on the Evidence record label.

Buddy Guy • Living Proof Silvertone Records

I am always apprehensive about buying Buddy Guy, his albums can be uneven and his live performances can be a mess and is summed up best by my second cousin "Hambone" "Skillet" Watson (the man with two nicknames), who says "I almost saw him play a complete solo once". He clowns and makes numerous faces and sometimes plays partial songs, which can be maddening unless you're drunk! One minute and 33 seconds into his new studio album he rips into a solo that will rip the paint off the walls and from that moment on he is in command. This is a full band hardcore blues record with special guests Carlos Santana and the ageless B.B. King doing a nice duet with Buddy. This record is full of short guitar bursts and flat out GETTING WITH IT! Buddy is an old Chess Records veteran and there's not many of them left. Living Proof is produced by Tom Hambridge, who also contributed songs and plays guitar. It is a very good record, I was pleasantly surprised! I can also recommend his box set that came out a few years ago called "can't quit the blues", a 3 C.D. overview which includes a dvd with performances and a cool documentary of his life and times with lots of great stories about Muddy, Big Mama Thornton and a naked Junior Wells!

Tune in next month for I CAN'T BELIEVE I BOUGHT THIS RECORD AND I LOVE IT!

A sidenote to traveling blues fans if you are ever in Indiana, Mississippi, go directly to the B.B. King Museum. It is wonderful and very educational and full of great artifacts.
