CHUBBY CARRIER and THE BAYOU SWAMP BAND with THE ANNI PIPER BAND

Wednesday, July 22nd @ 6 pm • $15 • 21st Saloon, 96th & L Street, Omaha NE

Chubby Carrier is undeniably “The World’s Premier Zydeco Showman.” Born on July 1, 1967 in Church Point, Louisiana, Chubby is the third generation of zydeco artists with such famous relatives as Roy Carrier (father), Warren Carrier (grandfather), and cousins Bebe and Calvin Carrier who are presently considered legends in zydeco history.

Chubby began his musical career at the age of 12 by playing drums with his father’s band. He began playing the accordion at the age of 15. By age 17, Chubby had begun to play with Terrance Simien and toured the world for 2 1/2 years, before forming his own band in 1989.

Chubby Carrier and the Bayou Swamp Band have recorded five CDs over the past ten years of Chubby’s professional career. His band has traveled all over the world, performing to audiences in all parts of the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, Canada, North Africa and Europe. Chubby and the band travel 150-175 days a year, taking his act to big festivals such as the New Orleans Jazz Fest, the Chicago Blues Fest. Summerfest (Milwaukee), Memphis in May, and several festivals in Europe. Chubby has also done guest appearances on recordings for Tab Benoit, 6Was9, and Jimmy Thackery. Ann Wilson of the group Heart encourages Chubby to “continue the great sound that you have. This sound will take you places.”

THE ANNI PIPER BAND

The sultry vocals of Australian blues performer Anni Piper attracted significant overseas interest & saw her sign with Blues Leaf Records (USA) in 2008. The ‘Blues Leaf’ catalogue includes releases by many successful American performers including the award-winning Janiva Magness. Piper’s latest CD ‘Split Second’ was recorded at Showplace Studios in New Jersey, USA & has received rave reviews since its release in April 2013, debuting at #3 on the USA RMR Blues charts. The album features Piper’s bass playing talents throughout and this time she shares vocal duties with talented Florida based beauty Nicole Hart. The Blues Leaf bombshells beguile listeners with butter-wouldn’t-melt-in-your-mouth harmonies and heart-rending ballads of love gone sour. But as well as showing their sweet side, there’s a little spice with diverse originals and covers from Janis Joplin to Ronnie Earl.

Anni Piper began playing electric guitar at 12 years old, but became a dedicated musician when she got her first bass at age 14. She quickly discovered an affinity with the instrument, preferring to lay down a groove rather than scream out a solo. Piper’s musical ability and strong focus led her to complete a Bachelor of Arts (Contemporary Music) at Southern Cross University, Lismore NSW, at the age of 19.

Piper remembers with clarity the first time she heard the blues back in her school days. “It was Paul Butterfield Blues Band playing ‘Born in Chicago’ - I knew straight away this was the direction I was heading,” she says.

What’s New with BluesEd?

We are right in the thick of our BluesEd season! Our six BluesEd bands are performing nearly every weekend at area events. We just wrapped up our BluesEd Benefit Concert on Father’s Day held at a Sokol Park in Bellevue. All six of our bands performed beautifully despite the hot weather. Our BluesEd parents, Stephanie & Jason Groenjes, chaired the Fundraiser which provided additional revenue for BluesEd. Guests at Sokol Park were treated to an outstanding Silent Auction full of treats for music lovers, food & beverage items, pampering gifts and tickets to area events. We also had three area food trucks serving our hungry guests & a full bar serving drinks. Funds raised help us keep our tuition costs low for our students while they learn the art of performing Blues music in a band setting.

Look for BluesEd bands performing this summer at many well-known Omaha-area venues. Voodoo Vinyl, Dilemma and Us & Them all performed in front of large, appreciative crowds for Playing with Fire. Those bands then hosted the AfterBurn Jam at Cantina Laredo featuring the headliners from Playing with Fire. Even our BluesEd alumni joined us at a chance to jam with the very finest Blues artists in the world.

For the first time in BluesEd history three of our BluesEd bands will also be performing at the venerable “Jazz on the Green” at Midtown Crossing. Opening acts on July 9th, July 23rd & August 13th will feature BluesEd bands Dilemma, Far & Wide and Silver Lining respectively.

Other area events you’ll see BluesEd bands include July 12th at the 21st Saloon for our BluesEd Showcase & July 26th for our Season Finale at Sumtur Amphitheater. Come out to support these young musicians. Chances are you are witnessing a young Jimi Hendrix on guitar, Etta James on vocals or Ray Charles on keys. Time and time again people attending our shows say they can’t believe these are “kid bands.” The talent level of our 12-18 year old students will blow you away.

Be sure to check out our website: www.BluesEd.com and like BluesEd on facebook to get all the latest updates.

After winning the Blues Foundation Award for Best Self-Produced CD at the 2010 International Blues Challenge, the Laurie Morvan Band lit up the stage in their very own half-hour TV special, which continues to air nationwide on the Big Ten Network. The band’s successful coast to coast touring includes performances at festivals, city events and clubs throughout the USA and Canada, the Legendary Rhythm & Blues Cruise, and later in 2012 their first European Tour. The LMB made their first big splash on the national blues scene at the 2008 International Blues Challenge, where they were a Top 10 Finalist in the live band competition, while simultaneously their CD, Cures What Ails Ya, was a Top 5 Finalist for the Best Self-Produced CD Award. They are the only band in IBC history to reach both finals at a single competition. Other accolades include twice being named the House of Blues Radio Hour “Blues Breaker” artist of the week, a B.B. King’s Bluesville “Picks to Click”, and winning the Blues Festival Guides’ 2008 Blues Artist on the Rise Award.

“Morvan is a stellar guitar player with consummate phrasing and respect for both the music and the spaces between the notes. She is one of the rising stars in the blues guitar world and anyone who wants to hear the future of blues guitar should pick up one of her CDs and check her out.”

- Blues Blast

“Guitarist Laurie Morvan and crew make a strong case for more awards to fill their trophy case. With Morvan’s muscular, yet lyrical, guitar lines leading the charge…”

- Blues Source

Laurie Morvan’s unique, fiery guitar style has been highlighted in feature articles in the world’s top guitar magazines. “Morvan sings the strings with fast, clean chicken pickin’, reaches heights of lyrical ecstasy through liquid bends, and kicks the rhythm in the pocket with propulsive comping” (Guitar Player). “Fearless and fresh...Morvan plays with plenty of imagination” (Vintage Guitar). "Stunning California axe slinger...exhilarating electric blues guitar style”

- Modern Guitars

So much more than just a wailin’ guitar slinger, Laurie is a charismatic performer whose stage presence is both powerful and inviting. Her songwriting has a fresh perspective, and her in-between-song banter alternates between inspirational and flat out hilarious. Audiences feel a genuine connection with her and she enjoys spending time with them after shows signing autographs, talking, and posing for photos. Laurie Morvan Band concerts feature the beautiful harmonies of Laurie and backup singer Lisa Grubbs, as well as dueling solos between Laurie, keyboardist Tom Salyers and bassist Pat Morvan. Drummer Lonnie Jones drives this high-octane train. They are a tight-knit unit who love performing and recording CDs together. Their fun-loving enthusiasm leaps right off the stage…and it’s contagious! In short, the Laurie Morvan Band plays red hot blues rock that feeds your soul!

AUSTIN YOUNG BAND

From the Laurie Morvan Band Website

Austin Lee Young, a Colorado native, picked up his first guitar at age 12 and hasn’t put it down since. Self taught, he churns out the blues and displays his music with electrifying passion that defies his young age. He engages his audience and can match any seasoned performer that currently draws large crowds. His inspirations run the gauntlet of the Blues from historical giants such as Robert Johnson and Muddy Waters to contemporary masters like Jimi Hendrix, Eric Clapton, and Stevie Ray Vaughan. Currently Austin and his band perform locally and nationally in established music clubs, numerous music festivals, private functions, and special events. He incorporates the sheer honesty of the blues and performs it with a modern, high energy sound that remains faithful to its traditional roots.

THE BEL AIRS WITH LITTLE MIKE AND THE TORNADOES

Thursday, July 19th @ 6 pm • $10 • 21st Saloon, 96th & L, Omaha, Ne.

Fronted by Brothers Dick and Dave Pruitt on bass and electric guitars, with Michael Cherry on drums, the Bel Airs play a danceable mix with an authentic but eclectic bluesy-country-soul-and-rock-n-roll sound influenced by the likes of Wilson Picket, Slim Harpo, Howlin’ Wolf and Johnny Cash.

The Pruitt brothers’ harmony vocal style sets them apart in the contemporary music scene—leading one reviewer to refer to them as the “Everly Brothers of Blues”. David’s “big guitar” and Dick’s howling vocals over soulful, right-on rhythm playing make this trio a powerhouse.

LITTLE MIKE AND THE TORNADOES

This powerhouse blues and rock n’ roll band from New York City is led by singer, songwriter, producer and harp master Mike Markowitz. The band is well-known for its flawless, high energy blues sound, modeled after the great Chicago bands of the 50’s.

They have played nearly every major metropolitan area in the United States and Canada, some of the toughest hangouts, as well as the most sophisticated stages in the world, never straying from their course of delivering hard back alley blues and rough rock and roll. Little Mike Markowitz, is a mean harmonica player who cut his teeth in New York City in the late 1970s and early 1980s, backing up legendary Bluesmen Pinetop Perkins, Hubert Sumlin, and Jimmy Rogers. He then moved to Florida, and continued to perform and record through the early 2000s.

After a hiatus from music, during which he raised his family near Gainesville, he’s playing high-energy blues again. Little Mike’s latest release is titled Forgive Me and he is currently touring in support of it.

From Carnegie Hall to the Q-Spot in Enid, Oklahoma, Scott Keaton is comfortable in any venue. His shows entice the gamut from most sophisticated, champagne drinking fans, to the fun-loving beer-drinking crowds. Keaton has performed with Art Garfunkel and Eric Idle at Carnegie Hall in New York City. But, he also enjoys playing in a smoke filled bar with nothing but a plywood stage.

Wherever he appears, he plays for the people, and gives each show the best of himself.

His music spans a wide variety; from blues to country, to rock. No matter what he is playing, his voice is strong and full of passion, and his guitar takes on a life of its own.

Keaton has ten original CD’s and owns Okeetone Inc. Productions, a full service recording and production studio. If you want to hear some great music, listen to samples of his Living the Dream album.

When Keaton is not playing music, he is teaching the business side of the industry. He is a professor of music at the University of Central Oklahoma located in Edmond, Oklahoma, and he has a master’s degree in psychology. Keaton uses his personal experiences to teach his students. He encourages them to set goals and guides them through the ropes of planning their musical careers.

He also gives back to the world by providing experiential music performances (music therapy), to those in need of healing.

New York writer Dave Rubin stated, "If Tim "Too Slim" Langford only played slide guitar, he would slither around most other blues guitarists and take a ferocious bite out of their pride. But as the sole six-string slinger, songwriter and lead vocalist of the power trio Too Slim and the Taildraggers, Langford is a force of nature leaving musical tracks others try to follow".

Those tracks led to Nashville, where Langford has been hanging and working with the big dogs. After teaming up with Grammy-winning producer Tom Hambridge (Buddy Guy, ZZ Top, Joe Louis Walker, George Thorogood, Susan Tedeschi...) Langford headed into the studio to track a new album, Blue Heart which was released in June 2013. Now Langford has again teamed up with Tom Hambridge to co-write and record three new songs for the upcoming June 2014 release of "Anthology". "Anthology" features the recordings of Langford from the Underworld Records catalog spanning the last 15 years. To top it off, in May 2014 through January 2015, Tim "Too Slim" Langford was chosen to be featured at the Nashville International Airport and the Country Music Hall of Fame alongside the likes of Elton John, Emmylou Harris, Rodney Crowell, Buddy Miller, Ray Stephenson, and The Carolina Chocolate Drops.

Creating an eclectic style of blues and rock that has become a genre all its own, Tim "Too Slim" Langford’s ever-evolving musical direction cannot easily be classified. Too Slim and the Taildraggers effortlessly cross genres, flavoring Blues with Rock and Americana, they appeal to audiences of varying musical tastes. Tim Langford has won multiple individual awards for Best Guitarist, Best Slide Guitarist, and Best Songwriter and the band are in the Hall of Fame in three Northwest blues societies. The band’s 2013 release “Blue Heart” Reach as high as #3 on the Billboard Top Blues Album Chart and Shiver, the bands previous release was a 2012 Blues Music Award nominee for "Blues Rock Recording of the Year".

Too Slim and the Taildraggers current rhythm section consists of Nashville bassist Eric "Stretch" Hanson and drummer Jeff "Shakey" Fowlkes (Kid Rock, Robert Bradley’s Blackwater Surprise).

Stacy Mitchhart Band

Thursday August 6th @ 6 pm • $10 • 21st Saloon, 96th and L Street, Omaha, NE

Stacy Mitchhart has built a worldwide fan base thanks to phenomenal live performances, national television exposure, radio airplay, loyal enthusiastic fans and aggressive marketing and merchandising campaigns. His masterful guitar work and strong vocals have been the driving forces behind his successful career. He has won numerous industry awards, released 12 CD’s and 1 DVD/CD, and holds 13 major endorsements. Stacy Mitchhart actively tours the US and abroad.

Mitchhart moved to Nashville in 1996 and took up residency as the house band for the hugely popular Bourbon Street Blues and Boogie Bar in historic Printer’s Alley. “Moving to Nashville has been fantastic. I lived in Los Angeles and New York and made a good living, but I’ve played with cats here that I wouldn’t have been able to (play with) anywhere else – James Brown, Keb’ Mo, Steven Stills, Gatemouth Brown, Joe Sample and other cats like that. I even played with John Entwistle of the Who,” Mitchhart says with a chuckle. “I’m a Yankee in Nashville doing the most non-country thing I can do.”

Stacy comes from a musically talented family. His grandfather played the fiddle, his uncle played drums and his grandmother played piano. “I grew up listening to my parent’s albums – Wes Montgomery, Al Hirt, Herb Alpert, Boots Randolph, Ink Spots and the Mills Brothers. While my friends were listing to R&R, I was tuning into soul stations and jazz. I went to rock concerts, but the music never thrilled me at all. I would have rather listened to Sam Cooke.

"Bobby Blue Bland is my favorite vocalist. He’s so smooth. He picks good material, does the classics and his own so well. He’s got style. BB King, of course, is a favorite. There’s a lot of him in my playing, without a doubt. At 14 I saw BB and Bobby together. I sneaked back stage and BB gave me his guitar pic. Albert King’s tone and intensity just really excites me. He’s the epitome of the blues guy. Same with Albert Collins, again, it’s tone and the super intense energy in the way he plays. Carlos Santana and Sly and the Family Stone were early musical influences. Wes Montgomery was a big influence. I was never influenced to play note for note. If I tried to emulate something, it was the tone.”

Stacy Mitchhart is widely recognized as the best show in Nashville, and as instrumental in the club’s being awarded “The Best Blues Club of the Year 2000” by the Blues Foundation. Whether playing Nashville or on the road, the thing that Stacy likes most about his audience is the wide mix of music fans. “They are basically not blues fans, but come out to see my show because it’s good entertainment. I want people to not only feel they got their money’s worth, but also feel they would have gotten their money’s worth even if they had paid twice or three times that amount.”

He is a showman dressed to the nines, with a teasing smile, quick wit and taste for blue humor. Stacy Mitchhart admits, “I do Latin, rock – all influenced by R&B and gospel. I’ve evolved into much more than just a straight blues.”

I knew that when I missed the Cate Bros last year in Omaha I would never hear the end of it... I told myself next time I would make special considerations to make it to the 21st Saloon. May 24th the Cate Brothers band made it back and by-god so did I. Met with a good crowd and the smell of Hawks Pulled Pork filling the air we all settled in for the Sunday night show.

The Cate Bros are Ernie Cate on Keyboard and Vocals... Earl Cate on Guitar and Vocals... Ron Eoff on Bass and Vocals... Dave Renko on Sax, this cat can blow... and Terry Cagle on drums and Vocals. Now these guys have all been around the block. The Cates got their start in the late 50’s and have played with a bunch of Who’s Who of the music world most notably in the early 80’s when Earl and Ernie joined a post Robbie Robertson version of “The Band” working closely with famed band member Levon Helm. Speaking of Levon, his nephew Terry Cagle is the drummer for the Cate Brothers, and man I’m tellin you if I shut my eyes while he is playing and singing I see him with a black glove on his left hand like Levon did late in his career, and Terry’s vocals on the their covers of “The Bands” songs like the “The night they drove ole Dixie down”, “Up on cripple creek” and “The Weight” it is both surreal and eerie, Terry and Levon’s vocal are just that close. I was also told that Sax man Dave Renko is from Eureka Springs where he plays at Chelsea’s Pub a former haunt of Larry Boehmer former owner of the Zoo Bar, Larry and his bands would play at Chelsea’s after Larry moved down to Eureka Springs in 2000.

Judging from what I both saw and heard I have to believe this show belongs on the show of the year list again... There was a good crowd, Louise Anderson was celebrating a Birthday, and if you played you cards right there was cake to be had... Tribal law was observed by having a horn in the band, and me and my Lincoln Blueshounds whacked a winning Keno ticket worth a quick hundred, a very cool night indeed.

Thanks to Scott Kirk and his second to none wait staff at the 21st Saloon, Thanks to the BSO for continuing to bring in such top notch talent to Omaha, we are lucky indeed to have that bunch of folks working towards Keeping the Blues Alive, and for that matter all music alive and well.

Nelsen Adelard • Voodou By You
Blue Track Records

The sixth album by Nelsen Adelard is titled “Voodou By You.” Spoiler alert: This CD rocks! Go buy it!

The opening cut is a song that Nelsen wrote for BSO favorite Josh Garrett titled, “I Need Tonight With You.” It has a nice bass line and great lyrics. The second cut, “Get in The Groove”, has an old school blues beat that reminded me of Bo Diddley. “Mon Cheri” follows and has a funky beat. “May Just Have to Set You Free” is a classic blues lament of a woman doing a man wrong, but it is done just right. The fifth song is the title cut and has a catchy lyric. “Boom” is aptly titled and had me tapping my feet. Next is, “Train Whistle Blues”, a classic blues train song featuring barrelhouse style keyboards. “I’m Gone” is a light acoustic blues tune, and the last cut is an instrumental showcasing guitar and harp: stripped down basic blues. This is a solid album featuring a variety of blues styles that all display Nelsen’s distinctive touch. Well worth your dime and time!

Saturday June 13, BluesEd vocalist Rebecca Erdman (of Far and Wide) presented GEORGE THOROGOOD with an honorary lifetime membership to The Blues Society of Omaha. Thorogood appreciated the award and said jokingly, “You mean Joe Bonamassa got this before me? But I’m his hero!” Thorogood is currently on tour with Brian Setzer’s Rockabilly Riot and he has been playing blues for over forty years.
Blue House with the Rent to Own Horns • At The Pit

Blue House is an institution in Omaha. They are currently celebrating their twenty-fifth year as a group. The new cd shows they are tighter than ever as a band. The cd was recorded live at The 40th Street Theater for a small audience. This enabled the group to have a live feel, while allowing for retakes to correct small errors.

The cd has the horn driven r&b they are known for playing. Joe Putjenter sings most of the lead vocals with his Howlin' Wolf inspired vocals he is known for singing- with Dave Eames and Stan Harper singing lead on several numbers.

There is a nice balance of originals and covers. A great cut is Mary Jo. It is an up-tempo song dedicated to Joe’s departed mother. My favorite song is the rockin’ Matchbox written by Ike Turner. It is sung by Dave. For my money, Dave Eames is the best guitarist in Omaha.

The rhythm section of Joe on drums and Mike Gallegos on bass are what really sets up the songs for a great vibe. They are outstanding throughout adding a great bottom for the exceptional horn section.

This is a very satisfying cd that doesn’t disappoint. It has the great sound you come to expect from Blue House.

There is a cd release party at the Doghouse Saloon in Waterloo on July 11th from 7-11:00 PM. It will also be available on line at www.bluehouseblues.com.

Dave Steen & Jailhouse Tattoo
Town Full Of Secrets

Lincoln guitar singer, vocalist and song writer Dave Steen has released this album of eleven all new, original songs. It was recorded, mixed and mastered locally using a local cast of top shelf musicians and technicians.

Town Full Of Secrets contains a good mix of musical styles that will keep you listening and interested throughout. It opens with an instrumental, Soda Pop. It took me drifting back to the early 1960’s hit, Last Night by the Mar-Keys. This opener sets the tone for the soulful, horn-rich sounds that follows. The remainder of the tracks while roaming all over the music spectrum follows this same feel – early Stax – Memphis Horns backed soul blues.

Just some of the highlights for me include:

Let’s Get You Home is a Texas roadhouse, rockabilly tune. It is a great song with a fun story to tell and plenty of rocking guitar and sax. For a complete change of pace, it is followed by the slow and soulful dance number I Was Wrong.

The instrumental Beat It Kid allows Dave to demonstrate a little of his guitar prowess.

Willie Gets Down is an interesting offering. Reading the track list, I went into it expecting a little hand-jive rhythm but got a decidedly Latin flavored Willie instead.

Great songs, great musicians, great production - This is just a great CD without a throwaway track on it. I recommend it for any soul, blues or Americana music fan.
