VOLUME EIGHTEEN, NUMBER NINE • SEPTEMBER 2013

JANIVA MAGNESS & JOHN NEMETH TO PERFORM IN LINCOLN!

"One of the most fiery and original vocalists in contemporary blues and soul...thoughtful, inventive and almost unerringly on the money."

--MOJO

Award-winning blues and soul artist Janiva Magness, touring in support of her latest Alligator Records CD, STRONGER FOR IT, will give a live performance at The Zoo Bar in Lincoln on Wednesday, September 4, 2013. A charismatic vocalist and songwriter known for her electrifying live shows, Magness is among the premier blues and R&B singers in the world today; her voice possesses an earthy, raw honesty born from her life experience. Magness recently won the 2013 Living Blues Readers' Award for Blues Artist Of The Year-Female and two 2013 Blues Music Awards: Contemporary Blues Female Artist Of The Year (her fourth win in this category) and Song Of The Year-I Won't Cry (by Janiva Magness and Dave Darling) from STRONGER FOR IT. She also won the 2009 Blues Music Award for B.B. King Entertainer Of The Year (she is only the second woman to ever win this award, Koko Taylor being the first).

Through her passionate vocals and, for the first time, through her own original songs, Magness, with STRONGER FOR IT, delivers the most moving and intimate album of her career. Concert information is as follows:

It's been a good while since I have written an update concerning David "Kid" Ramos' condition. As you may know, Kid has spent the major part of the last 20 months battling a rare form of cancer. After undergoing radiation treatments, major surgery and intense Chemo Therapy, Kid is finally coming up on his last 3 five day sessions of Chemo. Although Kid is a positive and serious fighter and has been reaching deep for the faith to beat this extremely serious condition, the battle has been debilitating to say the least. The doctors have convinced Kid and his family that this is his only window of opportunity to try and kill this thing forever. So Kid fights on but it is becoming increasingly harder to recuperate from the Chemo and it takes longer each time.

We all pray that with the medical help Kid is receiving, his strong faith and his ability to fight, he will come out the other end of this disease and continue to live a good life supporting his family and kids through college. Kid has given us so much wonderful music over the years from his early days with The James Harman Band and Hollywood Fats, to his solo albums and work with his pal Lynwood Slim, The Fabulous Thunderbirds, Los Fabulocos and most recently The Mannish Boys. Now is our opportunity to give back to Kid.

So many of you have helped Kid and his family by donating what you can towards his mounting medical bills. The Ramos Family has reached a point where Kid's disability insurance has run out. A lot is at stake and Kid worries that he will lose all that he has worked so hard for the last 30+ plus years. More importantly he worries that his family will suffer financially. Therefore I am making a personal plea to all of his friends, fans and concerned individuals to reach in your pockets and give what you can to help Kid and his family get through this extremely trying time. Every single dollar counts and it is GREATLY appreciated.

You can go directly to the Delta Groove web site at www.deltagroovemusic.com and donate through PayPal using our direct donate link, go directly through PayPal at kidramosmedfund@gmail.com or you can send a check made out to David Ramos directly to the Delta Groove office at Delta Groove Music 16501 Sherman Way, Suite 100 Van Nuys, CA 91406 USA and your check will be sent to Kid's home. Cards and letters with well wishes would also be greatly appreciated.

Our Sincere Thanks,
Randy Chortkoff – CEO & Producer – Delta Groove Records

The Kinsey Report will play its energetic, rocky blues sound at the 21st Saloon Thursday concert series on September 26th.

The three Kinsey brothers; Ralph, Donald and Kenneth are the heart and soul of the band. The musicians are the sons of the late Chicago blues man, Lester "Big Daddy" Kinsey, and their careers as members of Big Daddy Kinsey's Fabulous Sons. The three brothers are joined by long time friend Nick Byrd, who also plays in Kenneth Kinsey's group, Funky Mojo Daddy.

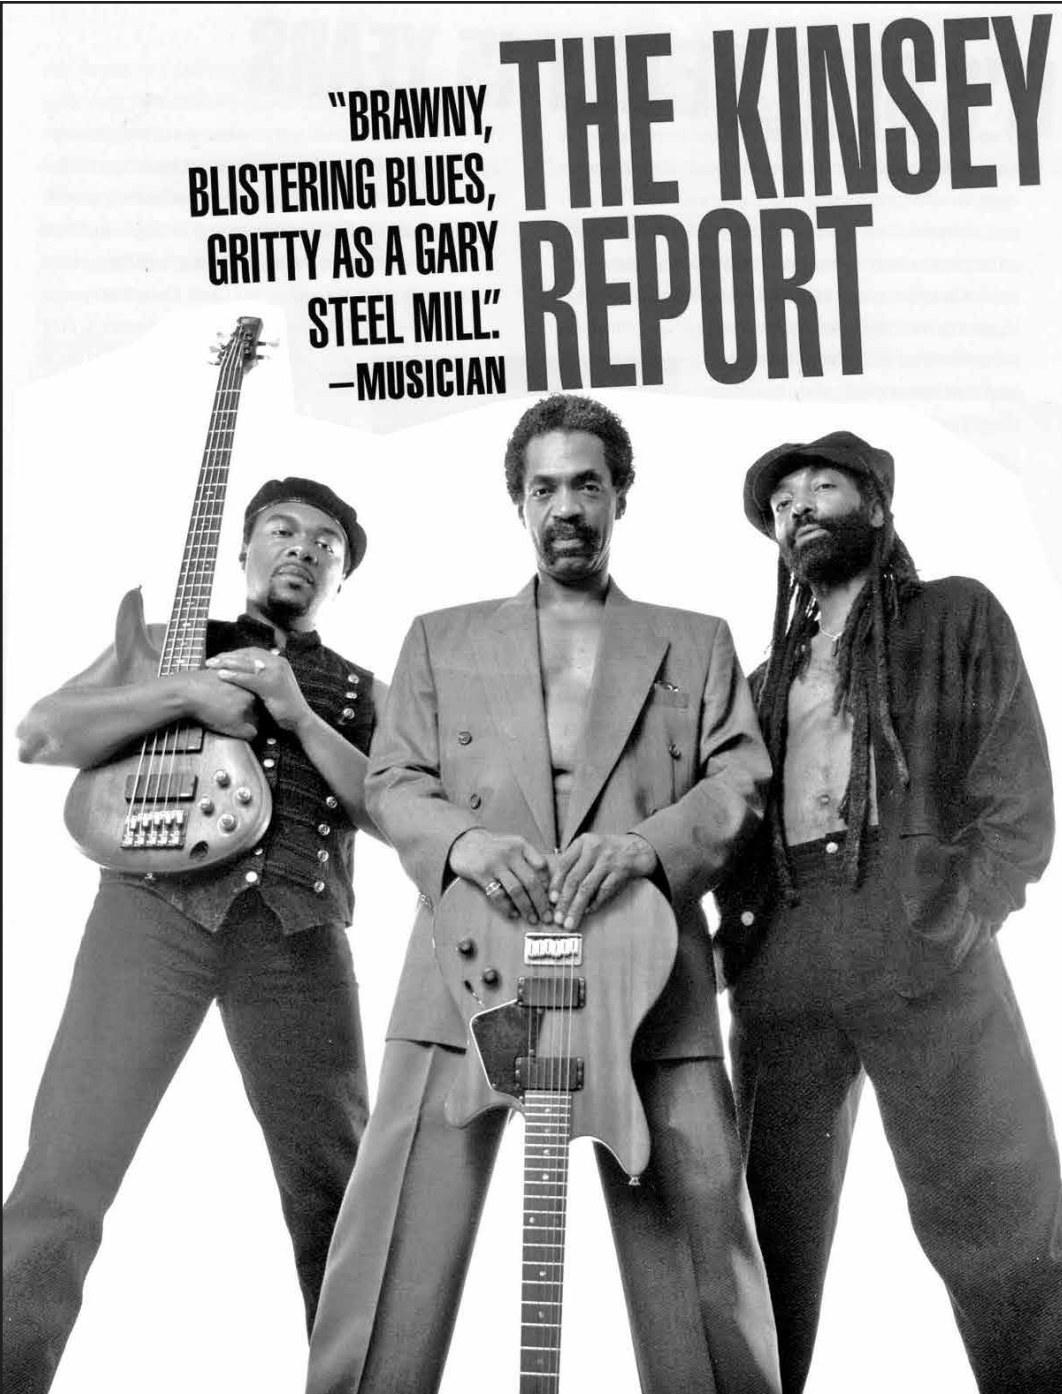

The Gary, Ind. natives formed their band over 25 years ago. Donald is on guitar, Ralph kills the drums, Kenneth plays bass and Nick Byrd plays guitar; the entire group sings. Donald Kinsey, the leader of the group, said playing with his brothers has made all of them musically in sync with one another.

Donald Kinsey said artists such as The Three Kings, BB Freddie and Chuck Berry have a big influence on him. However, he said his church and his father are his two biggest inspirations. Donald Kinsey has an impressive resume in the music industry as he has played with artists like Peter Tosh, Albert King and reggae superstar Bob Marley.

The Kinsey Report has its unique sound down to a science in each of their five albums: "Edge of the City," "Midnight Drive," "Powerhouse," "Crossing Bridges" and "Smoke and Steel."

No stranger to the road, Donald Kinsey said the hardest thing is being away from his family and missing them but he does love what being on tour means to him.

"I like sharing the feeling that the music brings to the people," he said.

THE HONEYBOY TURNER BAND AT MCKENNA'S

What a nostalgic night. McKenna's was the first place I ever played on stage—back in 1996. Glad to see they are booking bands again in earnest, and (as always), it's a treat to see my buddies from the Honeyboy band.

A BSO Thank you for bringing in the Honeyboy Turner band, you won't find any more veteran musicians than this group.

Dana Fuchs Zoo Bar – 8/14/13

The Zoo Bar debut was a success for Dana Fuchs ... Dana is a Tall drink of water, I'm talking volleyball tall with a set of cast iron pipes and she can rock it. Every one of her songs was just wringing with emotion. Born in New Jersey and raised in a small rural town in Florida, she began singing in the Baptist Gospel Choir at age 12. Her web page also says she played the singing part of Janis Joplin in the off Broadway musical "Love Janis." I can totally see that.

Dana and her accomplished band had the Zoo Bar crowd eating out their hands in no time, not a timid bone in this woman's body, and if it takes a well placed "F Bomb" to get her point across So Freaking be it! She played a role in the 2007 movie "Across the Universe," to which a lot of fans tonight related, guess I got to rent me a movie.

Hope Pete and the boys get her back real soon... Dana was very impressed with the reception she got tonight at the Infamous Zoo Bar in Lincoln... Omaha, heads up, snag her when you can, just sayin.

John Nemeth

Appearing at the Zoo Bar Sept. 4th

It only happens about once every other decade -- a fresh young talent, whose star power can't be denied, comes along to take the blues by storm. Stevie Ray Vaughan and Robert Cray did it in the '80s. John Nemeth could be the next young blues star to do it in the new millennium. No doubt about it, he's got it all: the outstanding voice, the musical prowess, the charismatic showmanship, the sharp-dressed good looks and the catchy original material -- all of the key ingredients required for ascendancy to crossover appeal.

Like the title of his irresistible new song (that dares you to not sing along on the chorus), the 31-year-old harp blower sounds "Too Good To Be True."

And like a magnet, Nemeth pulled in some major talent -- none other than famed guitarists Elvin Bishop, Junior Watson and Anson Funderburgh -- to assist in the studio for his two critically-acclaimed CDs on the Blind Pig label: 2007's Magic Touch and his 2009 release Love Me Tonight. Piano, organ, acoustic bass and a Memphis style horn section round out Nemeth's soulful vocals and harmonica on his discs.

Shawn Holt & the Teardrops debut release on Blind Pig Records

DADDY TOLD ME

Featuring John Primer and Levi William • Release date September 24th

When the blues world mourned the passing of Magic Slim this past spring at a tribute at Buddy Guy's Legends in Chicago, Bill Dahl of the Chicago Blues Guide wrote, "A Night For Magic" commenced in true torch-passing fashion with Slim's guitar-wielding son, Shawn Holt, leading a second-generation lineup of Teardrops that proved conclusively he has what it takes to maintain the family legacy."

Magic Slim & the Teardrops have probably been nominated for the Blues Foundation's "Blues Band of the Year" award more times than any blues band playing today - including eight times in the last ten years. You can't become a Teardrop until Magic Slim says you're good enough. Shawn Holt became a Teardrop last year shortly before his dad died.

The high energy, hard-driving sound of the Teardrops is still alive and well with Shawn, a chip off the old block, fronting his old man's band. Shawn's booming vocal presence is more than a little reminiscent of his father's, and his guitar playing, while similar to Slim's, exhibits a broader mix of classic and contemporary influences. Combining a couple of his Dad's songs and other songs associated with him with five of his own originals, Shawn shows himself more than capable of leading the Teardrops into a new era.
